

DREAM OF SOMETHING MORE SOMETHING LESS AND AREALLY PRETTY DRESS.

Modern ideas of what to do, what to feel, where to go, what to wear kensie dreams the dreams and roams the world just as a true romantic would. The anticipation, the inspiration. Ideas of right now are fluid and fresh and gently bumping into day and night.

Moods that matter that don't that are just for fun, just for effect. It's spring 08 and kensie is having a party filled with dreams moods and moments and all those friends that make you laugh, cry, think, dream, love and explore the moments of life's journey. Spring 08 is like a marvelously modern party influenced by Paris and Los Angeles, and the dream of what's to be. Friends getting together to discover newness, sameness, what's to be, dreams, jobs good and bad and wished for Wishes yes. Dreams yes. They pull them around, toss them around, wear them for a while and decide on nothing at all. It's just the exploration. The curiosity. Whimsy. Romanticizing. The vitality of what's right now. There's things pretty yet strong, contradiction, strength, there's an airiness, an unsureness that's ok, a confidence that all is ok. Always a happy, letting you be you mood.

Pretty and effortless. Accidentally chic. Elegant yet raw. A pretty modern dream for pretty modern dressing.
