a dream in color

SS12 AND WE HAVE A NEW FASCINATION. COLOR. WE LOVE COLOR AND HOW IT PLAYS INTO OUR MOODS, OUR CLOTHES, OUR SURROUNDINGS. WE THREW IT ON THE CLOTHES, THE WALL, THE FLOORS. WE PUT IT IN BOXES, POURED IT FROM TUMBLERS AND POURED IT OVER CHAIRS. WE LET IT PAINT OUR THOUGHTS AND LET IT TAKE OVER OUR MOODS.

I played. I experimented. I interpreted.

I want to know how I feel, how I think, how my mood changes and grows when I play in color.

an installation exploration _____ we dipped into the orange pool and got a crush, we came out speechless with smatterings of color woven into body bearing loose knits, we call it crushed orange.

CRUSHED ORANGE

IT'S BEING CAUGHT IN A MOOD AND PLAYING WITH IT

THE EXPERIMENTATION OF ORANGE AND SPEAKING PRETTY. HOW TO GET THINGS OFF YOUR MIND WITHOUT MAKING A MESS.

WE MADE A SHOW. HAVE A SEAT.

a show of color_____everything started to run. the colors.
the words. the horses. the feminine into masculine. the dresses into pants. the colors flowed into light airy pieces topped up with knotty tops.

stand for something — we chose red. flirty combinations of red made reckless with clashing combos of orange, blue and what have you. reckless red.

RECKLESS RED

i stand for red

a sign of something we had some thoughts and we had some ideas. we said them. we covered them up, and we stand for red. with stripes.

I red your mind_____and it showed the way to an outlay of dots, stripes, florals and drapey gray tie dyes.

Let's hang out and make pretty intense color intensely soft mostly we found violet to be this odd sense of strength made light with some kind of magical illuminosity. we stared.

OF AWESOME.

what color are tears sometimes we cry because things are just that beautiful. we noticed those tears were blue. so we went with crying blue. it's pretty.

CRYING BLUE

blue dripped onto the clothes in watery swirls and florals and dots, a bit of lace to see through our thinking. it ran down our posters and in tiny tear like shapes.

switch on the color our study in color made us cry, laugh, mad, blue, soft, curious and some other emotions we were unclear of, that's normal.

hang out in color_____show your colors in chunky colors hanging round the parts of you you love best.

our curiosity of what's pretty. in project pretty we are continually exploring, discovering, seeing and sharing what makes pretty. in SS12 we are curious about color and want to share ideas and inspiration on color.
